

Cultural Days: Cosmo Critters

To celebrate the animals who have been sent to space, the Museum will host a day of adoption with Homeward Bound Pets. Trot over and spend a day with furry friends, courtesy of Homeward Bound Pets! Activities include: Pet spacesuit design challenge and fashion show, space capsule build, docent presentation, space shuttle glider construction, scavenger hunt, and a chance to design a commemorative patch! It will be a full day of activities, both for our guests and their furry companions! Admission to this Museum event is $10 with a Golden Ticket. Print or show this flyer at admission.
