Local Attractions Offer Reciprocal Admission to Members in 2016

Portland, OR – January 6, 2016 – Back by popular demand, museums and attractions in the Portland metro area have teamed up to offer a reciprocal membership program in 2016. Created by members of the Portland Attractions Marketing Alliance (PAMA) in 2015, this special promotion was initiated as a way to show appreciation for each attraction’s loyal members, as well as to highlight the important role that cultural attractions play in the community.

In 2016, members of the Oregon Zoo, World Forestry Center, Oregon Historical Society, Lan Su Chinese Garden, Rice Northwest Museum of Rocks & Minerals, Evergreen Aviation & Space Museum, Washington County Museum, & Deepwood Museum & Gardens will have access to free admission for up to four people during the months of:
