

2021 Summer Camps

The Evergreen Aviation and Space Museum summer camps are back! These interactive one-week programs are filled with exciting, educational experiences designed for each specific age group. These aerospace camps will ignite a passion for exploration, innovation, and STEM in our future aviators and space explorers.

August 2 - 6, 2021 | 9 am - 3:30 pm

GALAXY EXPLORATION TRAINING - SPACE CAMP

6th - 9th GRADERS

Calling all future NASA astronauts! Launch into the outer depths of the universe and join us for a week of scientific missions. Explore the challenges of venturing into space by problem-solving your way out of orbit, searching for signs of life, and discovering the distance of the planets in our solar system. By the end of camp, you'll be ready for lift-off!

- CAMP MISSIONS:
- Build and launch your own rocket
 - Garden like astronauts on Mars with a hydroponic garden to create cosmic cuisine
 - Engineer a Mars Rover out of Legos

AIR ACADEMY - AVIATION CAMP

3rd - 5th GRADERS

Have you ever wondered what on Earth keeps airplanes in the sky? Jump in the pilot's seat and dive into the many sides of aviation innovation. Discover the ingenuity of inventors like DaVinci and the Wright Brothers, and get inspired to engineer your own flying machines. The sky is the limit this summer!

- CAMP MISSIONS:
- Try your hand at flying aircrafts with our Flight Simulator Lab
 - Design your own airplane by learning what controls the four forces of flight
 - Get an up close view of the Spruce Goose
